

100+ CREATIVE IDEAS FROM REAL WEDDINGS

SEATTLE BRIDE

THE TOP
WEDDING VENUES,
DECOR EXPERTS,
PHOTOGRAPHERS,
FLORISTS AND MORE

25 INSPIRING
LOCAL CELEBRATIONS

FUN NEW FAVORS

THE CITY'S SWANKIEST
RECEPTION SITES

Plus
Luscious
Floral Decor

BEST of BRIDE

FALL/WINTER 2016

$5.99

DISPLAY JULY/AUGUST

seattlebridemag.com

UNVEILED

NEWS & NOTES FOR THE NEARLYWED

Bridal Basics

CATERING

HOT WHEELS

Food trucks have gained a devoted following, continuing to be a wedding-day favorite for Seattle couples. The following newcomers stand out from the carpool, each offering delectable fare and sweetly designed wheels.

Mobile Mavens

Launched by food industry pros Michelle Clair and Danielle Custer (of Monte Cristo fame), Mobile Mavens provides a delightful fleet of vehicles, each with their own signature cuisine. Pop Up—two darling bicycle carts—offers sweet ice cream treats, while the vintage-chic campers include Biscuit Box (serving warm biscuits and house-made jams), Picnic (offering hearty sandwiches) and GaiBox (specializing in Asian fusion fare). The latest addition is Lil' Blu with Half Pint, a 1968 utility truck that serves Stumptown cold brew and other cool sips. The charming caravan is designed to mix and match to create a playful display for your big day. Available year-round throughout the state; menus are customizable; $1,300–$2,000 inclusive fee for 80–150 people within Seattle area; mobilemavenseattle.com.